WOMEN WORK IN THE FIELD

Husking Corn That They Might Make Wages to Swell Church Fund

Ladies Aid Society of Arlington
M. E. Church Make Unheard of Sacrifices

Working for a good cause prompted the Ladies Aid Society of the Arlington Methodist church to go into the field and put upon their tender hands, the laborers husking gloves, working until nightfall, "in the field of yellow corn," for the glory and edification of their Maker.

For some time past various means of raising money have been indulged in by the members of the Arlington congregation, in an endeavor to swell the fund for a new church, but last week the women made the unheard of sacrifice of harvesting as men in the field, to add their part to the new church.

Their rewards will surely be great, when we remember that it is written that "whoever gives a glass of water in My name, will be remembered in heaven?" Here are women that left their warm hearths, neglected their household duties, and worked in the field as men, all for the glorification of God.

In four hours they husked 137 bushels of corn on the farm of Mrs. Hannah Havens, who lives west of Arlington. Those who lent a helping hand were Mesdames Lee Davis, S. Smith, Sarah Andrews, F. H. Rucker, Fred McFatrige, Ella Williamson and Misses Lena Havens, Bertha Andrews, Cora Smith, Fannie Shepard and Fannie Litner.

The ladies were enthusiastic over their work, and say they enjoyed it immensely, feeling much better in having aided in this novel manner.

They say they are now ready to challenge for any kind of work, that they may soon have the fond hope of a new church realized.

YOUNG LAD MAKES A DARING ESCAPE

Thomas Richardson, Sentenced
by Judge Sparks Breaks Loose From Officer

Following his appearance before Judge Sparks in the Circuit court this morning to answer to a charge of high way robbery on a plea of guilty to which he was sentenced to the Jeffersonville Reformatory for a term of from 1 to 3 years, Thomas Richardson a well-known young man about town made a successful dash for liberty about 10 o'clock yesterday forenoon at Shelbyville and escaped from Deputy Sheriff Jasper Ritchey as he was being taken through the jail yard back to the jail from which he had been taken to appear before the judge.

Up until late this afternoon he had not been apprehended.

—Jack Lube, a barber in the employ of Norm Norris, is enjoying a week's vacation. He will visit at Anderson, Pendleton and Knightstown before returning Friday.

—Fred Bell and family, of Union township, will leave for Columbus, Miss., in about three weeks, to spend the winter. Mr. Bell will engage in the lumber business while there.

—James Boring, of Elwood, a brother of Ike Boring, was here today, on his way to Homer where he will attend the funeral of his father-in-law Martin Plummer, who will be buried tomorrow.

—Mrs. Ellen Worsham and daughter, Miss Ellen have returned from a visit in Indianapolis.

WHIPPED CREAM

Cow Swallowed Buggy Whip a Week Ago and is Still on Active List

A peculiar thing occurred a week ago last Saturday at the farm of John Ritchey, five miles north of Plymouth. While his cattle were grazing in the orchard and occasionally picking up an apple which had fallen, one of them choked. An apple lodged in the throat of the animal and in order to save her life, Mr. Ritchey took a buggy whip with which he was pushing the apple down into the stomach of the cow, when she bit off the buggy whip stock and swallowed a piece of it a foot and a half in length.

A veterinary surgeon was called from Bremen and after making examination stated that the buggy whip was in the cow. That was a week ago and the animal still lives apparently as healthy as before.

FREIGHT CAR AND CABOOSE DERAILED

And Thrown Across the Main Track of the Big Four
this Morning

While Big Four extra north bound freight train No. 6183 was backing out of the siding, after the south-bound passenger had gone at 8:13 this morning, a box car and the caboose were thrown from the track on account of an open D-rail.

The caboose was thrown across the main track and the box car in an opposite direction on the right of way south of the Big Four station.

The main track was cleared after several hours work so that no trains were delayed.

THEY MUST ALL DRESS IN CALICO

The "Calico Hop" at Woodmen's
Hall Tonight Revives
Many Fond Memories

There will be a calico ball at the Modern Woodmen hall tonight. This fact will revive many memories of days gone by, in the minds of the oldest inhabitant—yes, and some of them not yet married—of the calico balls they attended when "youngsters" how they laughed at Aunt Betsey (now a grandmother) who wore an unbecomingly fitting frock of calico and how odd old Judge So and So's daughter looked in a cheap ball dress. They were great days—the old days, and the calico dances where Uncle Jim and Uncle Peter wore neckties of the same material that the girl they were "a sparkin'" had a dress made of.

And tonight the young folks are to revive that old custom. The programs announced that it is to be a "Calico Hop," and that all the girls would be obliged to wear calico dresses, and bring enough extra material for a necktie. The Misses Smiley and Gutapfel have charge of the dance.

—Mrs. Nellie Kennedy, of East Seventh street, has returned from an extended visit with friends in Chicago, Lafayette and Indianapolis.

—Miss Anna Ross, of Richmond, and Mrs. Lewis Baldwin, of Washington, D. C., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Puntney, of West Third street.

—Congressman Watson and family returned from Winchester last night. Mr. Watson spent today in Indianapolis, and will go to Chicago tomorrow on a business trip.

—Miss Edna Allen, who has been visiting her father, H. H. Allen, for several months, returned home to North Vernon Saturday.

CORN SPECIAL NEXT THURSDAY

Run Under the Auspices of Purdue University, Will be in this City

Lecture Will be Given in Court House at Eight O'clock in the Evening

T. A. Coleman, of this county, will be one of the lecturers on the Purdue University Gospel Corn train, which is making a tour of this State. The corn special is due in this city Thursday evening, and will remain over night here. A lecture will be given in the assembly room of the court house at 8 o'clock in the evening, and everybody is cordially invited to attend this meeting.

Those interested in the work of the Corn special, will be welcome to call at the Lake Erie depot, where the car will be sidetracked, where many things of interest and value to the farmer will be on exhibition.

This train is equipped and run free of expense to the State. Through the courtesy of the L. E. & W. officials this train is furnished to Purdue University Experiment Station for the extending and projecting of the results of the Station investigations in the selection and care of seed corn.

Recent investigations by the Experiment Station shows that the stand of corn in the State is less than 75 per cent. of a perfect stand. This condition in most cases is due to poor seed. By the use of demonstration material and results of investigations, the Experiment Station hopes to show the farmers how the condition of the stand of corn through the seed can be readily improved. Results of work will be given in no other way, and no farmer can afford to miss the opportunity of hearing these lectures.

Mr. G. I. Christie, of the Purdue Experiment Station, will have charge and will be glad to answer questions put by farmers.

The train will arrive here from New Castle at 6:40 p.m. Thursday evening and will leave the following morning.

SPECIAL TRAIN FOR K. OF C.'S

Richmond and Connersville Join this City in Securing Special Train to Greensburg

The local council of Knights of Columbus made arrangements today with the Big Four railroad company for a special train to Greensburg next Sunday. The Rushville council will confer the first degree on a large class which will be initiated in Greensburg Sunday. The Connersville council will send over about fifty members on the traction line, who will then take the special train for the rest of the trip. Richmond will send down about twenty-five members on the early Pennsylvania train, who will transfer here. About fifty members of the local council will be in attendance.

The train leaves here at 8:30 o'clock in the morning, and returning leaves Greensburg at 9:30 o'clock at night. A fare of fifty cents will be charged for the round trip.

—Grand M. Carr was in Anderson yesterday.

—Mrs. Bessie Vance Hawk, of Cincinnati, is here to visit relatives for a few days.

Many a family who are scared half out of their senses at every thunderstorm will run a hundred-fold greater risk from dirty wells and malarious swamp holes without a sign of alarm.

Of course the weather cleared as soon as the lights came on. "To him who hath shall be given."

STATE CORN SHOW

At Purdue University January, 14-19, 1907—Large Premiums Already Donated

The second annual corn show will be held by the Indiana Corn Growers' Association, January 14 - 19, 1907, in connection with the corn school at Purdue University. This show being held in connection with the corn school, is of great educational value. At no place in the State will there be brought together more representative samples of corn than at Purdue.

The State will be divided into five sections as was done last year. Premiums will be offered for the different classes of corn in each section. In this way every farmer in the state has a fair chance—competition being limited to exhibitors from this section. Exhibitors from the north, central and southern parts of the state will come into competition only in the sweepstakes classes.

Large premiums, as corn planters, walking plows, and fertilizer, have already been donated. A large amount of cash has also been contributed to the premium fund.

It is hoped that the premiums offered will be sufficient in number and size to encourage the best efforts of every farmer in selecting and exhibiting a sample of corn.

All interested in the corn show should apply to G. I. Christie, Secretary, Lafayette, Ind., for circulars.

THEME OF MUSIC IN COTERIE CLUB

Program Given at Home of Mrs.
Meredith Yesterday Was of Unusual Merit

One of the most pleasant meetings of the season given by the Coterie Club, was at the home of Mrs. Will Meredith, of North Morgan street yesterday afternoon. The program was musical in every sense, from the paper read to the "capers" of the various members, who were in a humor to indulge in a bit of comedy acting. Mrs. Will Meredith, the hostess, read a paper on the "Pianoforte," and reviewed this wonderful instrument from the time it was used in the original form of a stringed harp, down the triumphs in the art of piano making of today—the wonderful piano grand. The paper was instructive, the subject handled in a manner that revealed careful study and research on the part of the reader, in hand. A number of Mrs. Meredith's pupils performed on the piano after the reading of the paper. A dialogue by two members of the Coterie, was one of the brightest things of the afternoon. It was along the line of the "cruel criticism that folks too often indulge in and afterwards say "a most beautiful program, indeed." It was amusing, and at the same time pointed out a moral.

Many pictures of old and odd musical instruments covered the walls, and a guessing contest of the name or nature of the various instruments was another of the pleasantest of the afternoon. Mrs. Kate Wilson, organized a sham orchestra, which provoked no end of laughter, and all entered into the spirit of the affair. One of the novel features of the program was the introduction of eight piano salesmen, who insisted on a sale of their instrument, and who nearly talked the members into a fit of hysterics.

About thirty-five members were in attendance. Mrs. Clint Bodine was elected to membership, to fill a vacancy in the Gibraltar of "Fifteen Members Only."

—Alvan Roberts of East Eight street went to Knightstown today to attend the funeral of his cousin, Mrs. Daisy Hoosier, the wife of Prof. John Hoosier, the colored musician. The Hoosier orchestra is well known in this city, and many will learn with regret of the death of Mrs. Hoosier, who was a very fine pianist.

Good roads and good fences are the best advertisement a section can have. They attract buyers and increase the value of real estate.

WHAT BECAME OF SAM MULL?

Is the Cry From the Hearts of Many Rushville
Women Today

Marriageable Man Does Not Materialize—"Hope Springs" Eternal etc., etc."

Today was the day that Sam Mull, the wealthy widower was to be in this city "out shopping" for a wife. But he failed to materialize.

You say now that he was only "working a cod," or has backed down on the whole proposition. No, let us not be rash in our judgment. A prisoner must be caught before he can be tried, and Mr. Mull must be given a hearing before we pass such snap judgement on him.

Maybe he is ill. Or perhaps business detains him, whatever it is, we can rest assured that Mr. Mull has a good excuse, or he would have been on hand.

He made the proposition in good faith, and Mr. Sam Mull is not the man that breaks faith with men (or women). Past performances have proven that his word is as good as his bond, and we are well aware of his financial standing, and his bond is as good as gold.

Heaven forbid that he has eloped with some fair damsel on the Q. T. to a gretna green, and is now a married man. Let us perish the thought.

But the fact still remains that Sam Mull promised to be here today, and to receive lady callers, with a view of matrimony, in the parlors of a hotel, and he came not. Maybe he has his dates mixed, there is another alibi. He has been married before, and it is well to say that he is no amateur in the art of excuse making.

There were an unusually large number of women, dressed in their finest feathers on the streets this afternoon, and it is understood that several made inquiries regarding Mr. Mull. They "buzzed" around on the quiet, and late this afternoon, two good looking ladies—well not necessarily young, but good looking—went so far as to go to a hotel and inquire after the wealthy widower. Several telephoned during the day—"off handedly"—inquiring if the "man of the broad acres and an ambition" had registered.

Fear not anxious heart, the curtain has not fallen on the little drama—there is yet the act with the climax, where they pair off and join hands, virtue triumphs, and all come into their own, and "they live happy ever afterwards."

SAYS IT WILL CREATE SYMPATHY FOR HINSHAW

Commenting on the Hinshaw case the Shelbyville Liberal says: The sudden re-uniting of Mr. and Mrs. George Freeman, of Wabash, will have a tendency to create deep sympathy for W. E. Hinshaw who was placed back in prison for the supposed permanent wrecking of the Freeman home. If Mr. Freeman could atone the wrong inflicted upon him by his wife and Hinshaw, so quickly, the average man will quickly say Hinshaw should be released from prison in view of the actions of the Freemans.

HUNTING LAW IS OUT SO ARE THE HUNTERS

Today was a beautiful day and the hunting law is out. So are a great many nimrods in this vicinity. Early this morning many hunters were seen, "taking to the woods" with dogs and guns, and many a bird, fattened for the slaughter, met his doom—and many of them are still on the wing.

—John A. Titsworth was in New Castle today on legal business.

ITS OWN STAMPS

Big Postoffices to Have a Special Design—Printing May be Contracted

Under the new specifications for postage stamps every presidential office will have its own stamps. The twenty-six largest offices, of which Indianapolis is one, will have the names of the office engraved on the stamp. The presidential offices will have stamps bearing the name of the office.

It is barely possible that the government will go out of the business of printing stamps. Heretofore they have been printed at the bureau of printing and engraving, but this year the American Bank Note Company has underbid the bureau. A commission has been appointed to decide whether the contract shall go to the bank note company.

FACTORY SUBSCRIPTIONS SLOW IN COMING IN

Secretary Scudder Kindly Asks that all Who Subscribed Should Pay at Once

The parties who placed their names on the Improvement Association subscription list to secure for this city the new factory, are a bit dilatory in paying "the sums placed opposite," same.

Secretary R. F. Scudder, who agreed to shoulder the responsibility of the duties of secretary is hardly being treated fair in this matter, and the people who subscribed should appreciate that he cannot give it his entire time for he receives no compensation, and they should call at his office at once and pay their obligation in this matter. It would be quite a convenience to him, and it would be greatly appreciated by the officers of the association.

OLD SETTLER GOES TO HIS REWARD

Martin Plummer, Veteran of the Civil War, Dies at His Home in Homer

Martin Plummer a substantial and aged old settler living in Homer, passed away at his home last night at 8:30 o'clock, death due to the infirmities of old age. Mr. Plummer was a veteran of the civil war, and has been identified with the Methodist church, as an active member, for years. He leaves a wife, by a second marriage, and several children. Deceased was 88 years, 9 months and 9 days of age. The funeral services will be held tomorrow morning at his late residence, and the funeral will leave the house at 12 o'clock, burial in Goddards cemetery.

Rev. Beck, of Arlington will officiate at the services.

—Harvey Cooper, of North Sexton street, has returned after a week's visit with his brother in Richmond.

—Mrs. W. F. Schrentz, of Orange, has returned from an extended visit with friends and relatives in Michigan.

—George H. Puntney is in Spice-land to spend a week recuperating and drinking the mineral waters there.

—Miss Aileen Wilson is home from college for a few days, the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson.

—President Charles L. Henry of the I. & C. was here this afternoon, and together with several officials, inspected the eastern extension of the I. & C. running out in his private car.

WRECK ON A LINE ---CLOTHES LINE

Was the Sad Intelligence that a Woman Phoned to "Kipp"
this Morning

A "little" family row on North Sexton street, broke the calm of a quiet and cool November morning today. They first started by saying things to one another and before the third round, they were doing things. Marshal Price was sent for, and both sides (and there were many involved) "told their troubles to a policeman."

He quieted the row as best he could, and after an admonition left them to their "breakfast dishes."

Peace reigned supreme, until the dove broke a wing when two of the leaders saw each other in the back yard throwing out "dish water." Enters the raven, exits the dove.

More things said. Many threats made. They "clean forgot" their promises to the officer. Sprouts of a high board fence again began to turn green and flourish.

Deputy Prosecutor Kiplinger answered a phone call in his office down town, and it was a wail of one of the participants of the altercation. She said Mrs. So-and-So had just reached over the fence and cut the clothes line, and all of her washing was lying in the dirt. Horrors! Out her clothes line? That surely is a "dirty trick"—for the clothes and for one who would wilfully and maliciously do it. The police ought to take her toilet soap and soft soap away from her for a week.

The same parties aired their troubles in Squire Jackson's court recently.

AUTUMN MEETING OF MONDAY CIRCLE

Sixty Guests Delightfully Entertained by Mrs. J. B. Kin-singer Last Evening

The Autumn open meeting of the Monday Circle was held at the home of Mrs. J. B. Kinsinger, corner of Fifth and Harrison streets last night.

The hostess delightfully entertained with a bountiful six o'clock dinner, and an unusually clever program. About sixty guests and members were in attendance, and after the dinner enjoyed a paper on "The Jew" by Ernest B. Thomas. B. F. Miller sang a tenor solo, and was in good voice as usual. Miss Jennie Madden followed with a piano solo of unusual merit. After the regular program, a social evening was spent, which all the guests enjoyed.

The Monday Circle has three open meetings each season, the Autumn, Mid-winter and Spring meetings.

PUMPKIN PIE LIKE MOTHER'S, A LUXURY

The pumpkin pack in Indiana this year is far below that of usual years, owing to the early freeze that put most of the crop into such shape that it could not be used. As a result, canning factories are having difficulty in finding enough pumpkins to make up even 2 per cent. of their usual pack, and prices have already advanced 10 to 20 per cent. with prospects of additional advances that will make the price eventually probably higher than it was last year.

The upper part of the pumpkins froze and when they thawed out they got soft. The loss is much larger than at first thought, the only pumpkins that successfully withstood the cold being those that were in fields thick with grass and, therefore, well protected.

POLITICAL GOSSIP

The Fairbanks Presidential Boom is Growing Apace.

Indianapolis, Ind., November 13.—By the time Vice President Fairbanks leaves here next week for Washington he will have a pretty thorough understanding with his lieutenants in Indiana as to the part they shall play in furthering his presidential boom. No time is to be lost in building up an organization throughout the country and in creating sentiment favorable to the vice president, whose friends are satisfied they will not have any trouble in lining up Indiana so that it will send an enthusiastic delegation to the next national convention. Indiana was pledged to the vice president during his recent tour of it on a special train, as squarely as if there had been an indorsement by a state convention. Wherever the vice president appeared he was introduced as the "next president" or as "Indiana's choice." The trip was so well planned that the leaders of all factions of the party were forced to join the procession and publicly indorse the vice president for president, so they stand openly committed now to his candidacy.

The impression is gaining ground that there will be a hot fight between the temperance and the liquor forces during the legislature, and that the former will have the backing of the governor in practically everything they undertake. There is no ground, however, for that belief except that the governor has stood for rigid law enforcement and was a prime mover in obtaining the enactment of the Moore law two years ago. At a meeting of the Anti-Saloon League leaders here it was decided again that an effort should be made to obtain an amendment to the Moore law providing for a county and city remonstrance against applications for retail license and to prevent the operation of "blind tigers." The result of the election showed that the liquor elements were aware of the purpose of the league, and there is no doubt that they feared that Governor Hanly would support any program it might have to offer. It is not known yet how many members owe their election to the liquor dealers or how many friends they will have. It is certain that several candidates on both sides owe their defeat to them. It is supposed that the members of the league are counting on the active support of Governor Hanly in their plan to amend the Moore law, but one of the governor's close friends said today that the governor thinks the Moore law is sufficient and that he will oppose any amendment to it. He also said that the Republican state organization almost to a man will stand out against the league's plan for a county remonstrance. It will help the league obtain a law to put "blind tigers" out of the business.

Official returns from the election last Tuesday will show that the Republican state ticket won by a plurality of about 30,825. It will not be 100 more or less than that, as the official vote has been received from every county except Laporte, which gave a slight Democratic plurality. The official returns show a notable falling off in the Republican vote, while the Democrats did almost as well as they did two years ago. The slump in the large Republican counties was enormous. The total vote this year was approximately 558,000, while the total of the state ticket two years ago was 633,724. The Republicans lost more by the stay-at-home vote than the Democrats. Fred A. Sims, candidate for secretary of state, led the Republican ticket, while James F. Cox, his Democratic opponent, received the largest vote on his ticket. The total vote for the Populist candidate for secretary of state was less than 1,000. The Socialist vote was 7,500, a loss of 2,500 in two years. There was also a big slump in the Prohibitionist vote.

A caucus of the Democratic members of the legislature will be held here within the next thirty or forty days to agree on a policy to be pursued during the session. Now that it is assured that the Democrats will be on nearly even terms with the Republicans in the house, the members will want to organize and present a solid front in favoring or opposing legislation. It is likely that there will also be a gathering of the Republican leaders here within a few days to discuss the legislative situation.

Murdered Companion and Fled.
Brazil, Ind., Nov. 13.—John Kurchic was shot and instantly killed by John Klyne at Diamond, six miles north of this city. As soon as Klyne fired the fatal shot he ran from the house where the murder was committed and disappeared in the woods. The two men recently came here from Austria to work in the mines.

Raisuli's Reward.
Tangier, Nov. 13.—News of the official nomination of Raisuli, the bandit chief, to be governor of the town of Arzilla and neighboring provinces has been received here. This nomination is made by the sultan. The territory under Raisuli's authority extends from Tangier to El Arish.

Charged With Peonage.
Mobile, Ala., Nov. 13.—The United States grand jury at Pensacola, Fla., has returned indictments against twelve persons, charging peonage in connection with cases which originated at the Jackson Lumber company's camps several months since.

DEERY STILL SICK

Another Delay Is Promised In Hearing "Monte Carlo" Cases.

MANAGER CAN'T ATTEND

Thomas G. Deery, Alleged Manager of the Two Big Casinos Still Confined to His Home.

Indications Are That the Orange County Cases Will Go Over Till January.

Paoli, Ind., Nov. 13.—Assistant Attorney General C. C. Hadley, who is here to straighten out the tangle connected with the trials of the gamblers arrested in the state's raid on the West Baden and French Lick Monte Carlos last July, says the indications are that the cases set for trial in Orange circuit court will go over to the January term. There is a possibility, though not a probability, that court may be continued over next week, and that the cases will be called for trial.

They were set in August for trial on Nov. 11, but last week it was discovered that Nov. 11 fell on Sunday. The court docket is full for this week, and another element of delay is the fact that it is still insisted that Thomas G. Deery, the alleged manager of the two Monte Carlos, is still so sick at his home in Saginaw as to make it impossible for him to come into court. Judge Thomas Buskirk, whose wife was buried Sunday, has appointed a special judge to occupy the bench this week.

AMUSEMENTS

With a cast composed of the most gifted actors in the profession Manager U. D. Newell will present "A Jolly American Tramp," by the author of Sol Smith Russell's "A Poor Relation," here on this evening, Nov. 13th. Specialties that will please, comedy that will cause laughter, and pathos that will cause many an eye to silently weep, are said to be the principal features. Jack Allen, Grace Euler, Juliette Newell, Lillie S. White, Vera Wilson and Wm. S. Ely are among the names recognized as capable players who will be seen in the great comedy melodrama next Tuesday.

The "Banker's Child" is the next attraction at the local opera house. "The Banker's Child" is pronounced by press, pulpit and public to be one of the best comedy dramas ever written. It is now in its fifth year and has played practically to the same territory all this time, having visited many places five or six times which proves beyond a doubt the merit of the attraction.

Manager Harry Shannon has new scenery painted this season. More comedy is added, while the story remains the same. Little Vera Lindlow as Stella, "The Banker's Child," is pronounced by all to be the cleverest child artist before the public. Clever specialties will be introduced. It will be well to secure seats early for this production. At the opera house one night only, Monday Nov. 19th.

GROOMING COUNTS

But it cannot make a Fair Skin or a Glossy Coat.

Women with good complexions cannot be homely. Creams, lotions, washes and powders cannot make a fair skin. Every horseman knows that the satin coat of his thoroughbred comes from the animal's "all-right" condition. Let the horse get "off his feed" and his coat turns dull. Curying, brushing and rubbing will give him a clean coat, but cannot produce the coveted smoothness and gloss of the horse's skin, which is his complexion. The ladies will see the point.

Lane's Family Medicine

Is the best preparation for ladies who desire a gentle laxative medicine that will give the body perfect cleanliness internally and the wholesomeness that produces such skins as painters love to copy.

COUNTY NEWS

Glenwood.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Lee Link, Nov. 9th, a girl baby.

The election is over and it shows many things to the voters of Union township. We are glad that Chairman Frazee is in favor of Primaries instead of conventions. The result of the Union township ticket is as follows:

A. P. Reynolds for justice of the peace received 70 votes at Gings and 94 at Glenwood—a total of 164.

Morton Nelson, for constable received 69 votes at Gings and 90 at Glenwood—a total of 159.

These two candidates had no opposition.

For advisory board, G. H. Meyer received 70 votes at Gings, 92 at Glenwood—total 162; Geo. Austin, 69 at Gings, 89 at Glenwood—total 158; W. T. Smith 67 at Gings, 92 at Glenwood—total 159; Edgar Wilson 86 at Gings, 67 at Glenwood—total 153; Wm. Morris 86 at Gings, 69 at Glenwood—total 155; Elijah Billings 88 at Gings, 67 at Glenwood—total 155.

The Republican majorities for advisory board were, Meyers 7, Austen 3 and Smith 4.

There are so many visitors now on our streets. Every car brings newcomers, some are seeking locations and some are hunting homes. Already some have agreed to buy lots and begin to build in the spring. Old Glenwood will come out of the rut yet.

We are glad there are no sore spots on the defeated candidates. It looks like some one is mistaken when you consider the vote of the State, county and township. Consider and meditate.

The revival at the M. E. church continues to grow in attendance, although it being at a busy season with every one. There has been some 405 united with the church. The accessions to a church does not always measure the success of a revival. But the spiritual condition of the membership is the test of the strength of the church. Everybody is cordially invited to attend all services.

Mr. Chas. Combs and two friends, a lady and gentleman came home with him on Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Catherine Boles, who was visiting the people of this vicinity has gone home to Hamilton, O., where she was accompanied by Mrs. Mary Reed, who later was joined by her son, T. A. Reed, spending a few days among old friends at Moscow, Ohio.

Mr. Bert Hobbs, a very successful bookkeeper of Indianapolis, and a native of Glenwood, visited home folks on Sunday afternoon. This can be done now since the interurban.

It snowed on the Sabbath.

Rev. Robert P. Cooke has returned from his extended vacation.

The usual services were held in the U. P. church.

Election day passed away extremely quiet, not even one vote being challenged.

John K. Fielding's house is ready for the plasterers.

Messrs. Oliver and Charles Mingle left for Beech Grove on the Big Four railway, where they will be in the employ of the Kinser Construction company. The Mingle brothers are excellent boys and good mechanics.

Wm. McConnell entertained company Sunday.

John L. Johnson, who is very sick with typhoid fever does not make any material change.

Master Harry Parmer visited his mother on Sunday.

Arlington.

Rev. Weaver, the colored Christian minister, conducted services at the Christian church Sunday. Mr. Weaver was favored with a good audience and gave a fine sermon. He handled his subject well and preached an able discourse.

Rev. Mr. Beck, pastor of the M. E. church, will commence revival services at the M. E. church this week, to continue indefinitely. Prof. Fred Woods and wife and Mrs. Ira Long attended the revival services at Indianapolis on Sunday. They reported a fine time and one of the most interesting meetings they ever attended. Every one who can possibly do so should attend one or more of these meetings.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Matthews went to Rushville Sunday evening to hear Rev. L. E. Brown, of Lebanon, Ind., at the Christian church. Mr. Brown is one of the best pulpit orators in this or any other State. He will preach in Rushville at the Christian church next Sunday and a large delegation from Arlington should hear him.

Mr. and Mrs. Elihu Price started out on Sunday morning in their buggy for a day's outing. They had not gotten a mile from home when the horse ran off and upset the buggy, throwing them out, both uninjured. A passerby took Mrs. Price in his buggy and his horse ran off and threw Mrs. Price out and broke her collarbone in two places, and otherwise bruised her up. We hope for her speedy recovery.

Farmers are making good use of their time this dry frosty weather, gathering corn, and getting ready for winter.

We called on Aunt Martha Morris at her daughter's Mrs. Wolverton, in Rushville, and found her still very ill and very little hopes of her ever being any better. Her friends have sent for her son, George Morris, who is in the South.

Mrs. Heglin is very ill and is suffering a great deal and it is only a matter of a few days until she passes away. She has many friends here who will miss her greatly for she is one of the old residents of Arlington.

Rev. Walter Smith has been very busy for some time delivering fruit trees to his customers for the fall setting.

The Sunday schools at both the churches are in a very prosperous condition. There were 114 in attendance at the Christian church Sunday morning. This is good considering the stormy morning. We hope the interest will keep up through the winter.

Silvie Hodge and family spent Sunday at William Horton's northwest of Rushville.

T. S. Johnson is placing a pair of pitless scales in his barn yard.

We learn that Rev. Beck will begin a series of meetings at Arlington Tuesday night to continue two weeks longer.

The Aid Society meets with Mrs. T. S. Johnson, Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Alba Cassidy and son Frank spent last Tuesday with her mother. Mrs. E. W. Veatch is nearly blind in her left eye as the result of a cataract growing on it.

WHAT IS CATARRH?

Simple Way to Overcome the Dangers of this Disagreeable Disease.

Catarrh is an inflammation of the mucous membrane of the nose, throat and lungs, with many annoying symptoms. In this climate there are few who do not suffer from this disagreeable disease, often in a chronic and dangerous state.

Fortunately within the last few years, a simple and reliable treatment for catarrhal trouble has been found,—Hymei, a combination of healing and germ-killing balsams, that, when breathed through the neat pocket inhaler, that comes with every outfit, reaches the tiniest cells in the respiratory organs, carrying its healing and health-giving properties to every part where the catarrhal poison is present.

Used in this way, Hymei kills all catarrhal germs, drives the poison from the system and heals all irritation that may be present in the mucous membrane.

If you have the ordinary catarrhal symptoms, such as offensive breath, burning pains in the throat, cough, raising of mucus, difficulty in breathing, sneezing, huskiness, discharge from the nose, droppings in the throat, coughing spasms, etc., begin the use of Hymei at once.

A complete Hymei outfit costs but $1, extra bottles, if needed, 50 cents, and sold by Johnson's Drug Store under an absolute guarantee that it will cure catarrh or money will be refunded.

The Young Man's Store

We don't believe that another store in town caters to the clothes-wants of young men in just the same way, or nearly so well as we do.

The demand of the young man for clothes original in design, appreciably more radical in cut and livelier in pattern than the clothes made for older men, is met in this store in a way that no other clothier in town attempts.

Garson-Meyer Clothes for young men are distinctly young men's clothes. They are just the sort of clothes that spirited young fellows demand—smarter, more dashing in cut, and better made than any other ready-for-service clothes produced for the same sort of wearers.

SMOKING A CIGAR

Curious Bet That Shows an Impossible Way of Smoking

"I have a customer who thinks he smokes twenty Wadsworth Bros. Chicos a day," said Thos. W. Lytle. "As a matter of fact, he gives away a good many, but is firm in his belief that he smokes more cigars than any other man in Rushville. He says he is willing to bet that no man can smoke even one cigar continuously until it is consumed without taking it from his lips, and he has won a good many boxes of Chicos on this simple bet.
